

A teaching tool! What titles and names would followers of past religious Dispensations give to Bahá'u'lláh? How would they recognize Him? (Direct passages From God Passes By pp. 93-95)

To Israel (Moses)	Everlasting Father, Lord of Hosts
Isaiah	Glory of the Father, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace, Wonderful, Counsellor, Rod come forth out of the Stem of Jesse
(King) David	Lord of Hosts, King of Glory
Haggai	Desire of all Nations
Zechariah	Branch
Zoroastrians	the promised Sháh-Bahrám
Hindus	Reincarnation of Krishna, Most Great Spirit, Tenth Avatar, Immaculate Manifestation of Krishna
Buddhists	The fifth Buddha, Buddha named Maitreya, the Buddha of Universal Fellowship
Christ	Prince of this world, Comforter, Spirit of Truth, Lord of the Vineyard
Christendom	Christ returned “in the glory of the Father”
Author of the Apocalypse	Glory of God, Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last
Muhammad	Great Announcement
Imám Alí	Him Who conversed with Moses from the Burning Bush on Sinai
Shí'ah Islám	return of the Imám Husayn
Sunní Islám	descent of the “Spirit of God” (Jesus Christ)
Siyid Kázim-i-Rashtí	beauty of Husayn
The Báb	Formally designated Bahá'u'lláh, Essence of Being, Remnant of God, Omnipotent Master, ‘Crimson, all-encompassing Light’, Lord of the visible and invisible, sole object of all previous Revelations, He Whom God shall make manifest, Abhá Horizon, ‘Son of Alí, a true and undoubted Leader of men’

“To attempt an exhaustive survey of the prophetic references to Bahá'u'lláh's Revelation would indeed be an impossible task. To this the pen of Bahá'u'lláh Himself bears witness: ‘All the Divine Books and Scriptures have predicted and announced unto men the advent of the Most Great Revelation. None can adequately recount the verses recorded in the Books of former ages which forecast this supreme Bounty, this most mighty Bestowal.’”